As far as God is concerned it's always been about His power. God's power put on display had a purpose.

Ex. 9:16 "And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth."

God's power today is accomplishing many things. One of which is found in Rom. 16:25 "Now unto him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began."

A believer stabilized by the power of God through an understanding of mystery truth will be able to have victory over fear. I ask myself and you also, is God's power on display to those around us as we boldly proclaim Paul's gospel of grace in Christ Jesus? God has chosen to use the foolish, weak, base, and despised to confound the mighty. In other words, you and I. That it might be all of His power working mightily in us.

Lesson 83

II Tim. 1:7 “For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.”

Love in a believer should be the outpouring of God’s love operating in our life.

Rom. 5:5 “And hope maketh not ashamed; because the _____ of _____ is _____ abroad in our _____ by the _____ which is _____ unto us.”

Gal. 5:22 “But the _____ of the _____ is _____, _____.”

Col. 1:8 “Who hath declared unto us _____ in the _____.”

God’s love working in us will cause our love to become His heartbeat.

Eph. 5:25 “Husbands, _____ your wives, _____ as _____ the _____, and _____ himself for it;”

It behooves each one of us to then be inundated with an understanding of God’s love.

Eph. 3:17-19 “...that ye, being _____ and _____ in _____,” vs. 18 May be able to _____ with all saints what is _____, and _____, and _____, and _____, vs 19 And to _____ the _____ of _____, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.”

II Thes. 3:5 “And the Lord _____ your _____ into the _____ of _____.”

What can we learn about God’s love that will eradicate fear in our life? God’s love sent Christ to the cross.

Rom. 5:8 “But God commendeth his _____ toward _____, in that, while we were yet _____, Christ _____ for _____.”

God’s love forever, Rom. 8:35, “Who shall _____ us from the _____ of _____?... vs. 39 ...shall be able to _____ us from the _____ of _____, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

God’s love constrains us, II Cor. 5:14 “For the _____ of _____ us;...”

God’s love is always with us, II Cor. 13:14 “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the _____ of _____, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be _____ you all.”

God’s love causes us to stand holy before him, Eph. 1:4 “...that we should be _____ and _____ before him in _____.”

God’s love is with a great love, Eph. 2:4 “But God who is rich in mercy, for his _____ wherewith he _____ us.”

God’s love causes us to be victorious, Rom. 8:34 “Nay in all these things we are more than _____ through him that _____ us.”

When you and I have a knowledge of God’s love built into our heart fear will be cast out.

Lesson 83 Continued

I John 4:18 "There is _____ in _____; but _____
_____..."

The law produced a bondage to _____ according to Rom. 8:15 but we are in a position that causes us to have an intimate relationship with God that allows us to call him _____.

The law offered both curses and blessings to Israel. The law had penalties, judgments, rules, commands, and threats.

Under grace we have an intimate, confident, and bold, acceptance with God, no strings attached!

Eph. 3:12 "In whom we have _____ and _____ by the faith of him."

Paul prays for us that we might comprehend, be rooted and grounded in the love of God.

Paul says in II Thes. 3:12 "And the _____ to increase and abound in _____ one toward another..."

Abounding love in you and I will be produced by the Lord Himself.

We are the beloved of God. Rom. 1:7 "To all that be in Rome, _____ of _____."

When we are intone with God's love, accurately assessing ourselves in relation to God's love, fear will not torment us.

Our love needs to be grounded in knowledge, (God's word) so that we will make godly choices.

Phil. 1:9 "And this I pray, that your _____ may abound yet _____ and _____ in _____ and in all _____; vs. 10 That ye may _____ things that are _____..."

When we are making godly choices by godly love operating in us, we will be free from the fear of doubt. "Is this the right things to do?" "Is this pleasing the Lord?" "Should I go there?" "Should I say or think that?" These kinds of inner questionings lurking in our hearts produce fear. God's love, known and understood will produce confidence and boldness in the decisions we make. Don't we long for that? That freedom from the doubts that produce fear in our lives.

Rom. 12:1, 2 says in vs. 2 "And be not _____ to this world: but be ye _____ by the _____ of your _____, that ye may _____ what is that _____, and _____ and _____ of _____."

- Does knowing that God's love has accepted you and placed you into an intimate relationship with Him set you free from the fear of rejection?
- Does knowing that God's love has made you more than a conqueror set you free from the fear of failure and death?
- Does knowing that God's love will never cease set you free from the fear of the loss of love?
- Does knowing that God's love fills you with knowledge set you free from the fear of self-doubt?

- Does knowing that God's love motivates you set you free from the fear of trying your hardest and failing?

- Does knowing God's love has revealed all the things He has for us set you free from the fear of doubting your faith?

As you and I meditate upon the love of God to us in the age of grace we will experience freedom from fear!
